The Committee on Armed Services, to which was referred the bill (S. 2487) to authorize appropriations for the fiscal year 1983 for intelligence activities of the United States Government, for the Intelligence Community Staff, and for the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability System, and for other purposes, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon with an amendment and recommends that the bill as amended do pass.

S203-5

THE CLASSIFIED REPORT AND THE APPENDIX

The classified nature of United States intelligence activities prevents the disclosure of details of the intelligence budget.

The Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, however, has prepared a classified report which describes in detail the full scope and intent of its actions and the specific amounts authorized for each of the major intelligence programs. In its unclassified report on S. 2487, Senate Report No. 97–379, the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence states that "the classified report, although not available to the public, will have the full force of any Senate Report, and that the intelligence community will comply with the guidelines, directions and limitations contained therein."

The Committee on Armed Services has prepared a classified appendix to the classified report of the Senate Select Committee on Inteiligence referred to above. This appendix contains details of changes recommended by the Committee on Armed Services to the classified report of the Select Committee on Intelligence. If the amendment recommended by the Committee on Armed Services is agreed to by the Senate, the classified appendix prepared by the Committee on Armed Services will supersede the classified report of the Select Committee to the extent that such report is inconsistent with the classified appendix.

COMMITTEE ACTION ON THE BILL

On June 17, 1982, the Committee on Armed Services, by unanimous vote, ordered the bill, as amended, to be reported favorably.

EVALUATION OF REGULATORY IMPACT

In accordance with apragraph 11(b) of Rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the committee finds that no regulatory impact will be incurred in implementing the provisions of this legislation.

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET AND IMPOUNDMENT CONTROL ACT

The committee has complied with section 403 of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974 to the extent practicable.
